1 Defendant United States of America (the "government"), and 2 defendants Rafia Farook ("Farook"), and Saira Khan ("Khan"), by and 3 through their respective counsel of record, hereby stipulate and 4 request as follows:

5 1. On May 31, 2016, the government filed a civil forfeiture
6 action entitled United States v. All Monies, Including Insurance
7 Benefits, in the Amount of $25,000, and Supplemental Life Insurance
8 Coverage in the Amount of $250,000, No. EDCV 16-01129-JGB(JPRx) ("All 9 Monies"). The complaint refers to the defendant res as the "Policy
10 Benefits."

11 2. On June 8, 2016, Minnesota Life filed this interpleader
12 action, naming as defendants the government, Farook, and Khan.
13 Minnesota Life concurrently deposited the Policy Benefits with the 14 Clerk of the Court.

15 3. On August 5, 2016, the Court in All Monies issued an arrest
16 warrant in rem for the policy benefits which Minnesota Life had 17 deposited with the Clerk of Court and ruled that the policy benefits
18 "shall remain in the custody of the Clerk of Court, as a duly 19 authorized custodian, until further order of this court." Dkt. 16 at 20 ¶ 4.

21 4. On October 7, 2016, pursuant to a stipulation filed by the 22 parties, this Court issued a Judgement in Interpleader in favor of 23 Minnesota Life, which is no longer a party to this Action.

24 5. The parties remaining in this Action are the government,
25 Farook, and Khan. The government, Farook, and Khan are also parties
26 to the civil forfeiture action. The parties believe that the issues
27 presented in this interpleader action overlap with the issues
28 presented in the All Monies civil forfeiture action and are more

1 appropriately resolved in the context of the civil forfeiture action.
2 The parties therefore request that the Court dismiss this 3 interpleader action without prejudice.

4 Dated: October 31, 2016

Respectfully submitted,
